A yearbook dedication is usually given to a person who throughout the year has devoted time and energy unselfishly to a group so that they may be successful. This yearbook is dedicated to two such people.

This yearbook wouldn't be here if it wasn't for Mrs. Scott. When no other faculty member wanted to take on the challenge of yearbook advisor, she came through. This was all the more commendable considering this was her first year here. The yearbook staff gives her our sincerest thanks.

The Class of '77' has always been considered different. Mr. Bennett helped us through our hardest but most prosperous year. We cannot thank him enough for his untiring patience and guidance.

Through the maze we travel . . .

Overcoming obstacles

Solving problems . . .

Answering questions . . .

Finding the right path through . . .
good times
and winning

Bad times . . .

and losing . . .

Together we find the answers

 Good Luck Class of "77" - The Watsons

The opening line of Charles Dickens "Tale of Two Cities" perfectly describes the past year of work on the yearbook. "It was the best of times, it was the worst of times" . . . The feeling of being alone with 20 Quad-Paks, 900 pictures, 1 cropper and 2 hours to lay out 25 pages; the satisfaction and pride when the book is published and it's a part of us . . . Only the yearbook staff knows!

Although the staff started out small, we suffered few casualties. Thanks to Lisa Conti, Kevin Coyne, Karen DeAngelis, Eric Johnson, Richard Nagle, Meri Ellen Nunan, Julie Pasquale and Anne Petraitis.

Farewell

THESE ARE THE ONLY ONE SUCCESS TO BE ABLE TO DEFEND YOUR LIFE IN YOUR OWN WAY

We never thought of you as small, your heart was so big you seemed ten feet tall.

You were kind and friendly to all you knew, but until it was too late, we never realized how much we needed you.

We'll miss your friendly punch and little hug. Such good times we had together - REMEMBER all the fun.

You gave us so much, all the love you shared. You'd make us happy when we were hurt and we always knew you cared.

That enchanting smile and crazy laugh pulled us through the days. We're gonna miss ya kid, in so very many ways.

What a pity it is that death grips you now and this is the end. How sad we are to say goodbye to such a dear friend.

It's so very hard to leave you here, alone, as we part.

So please remember, Michael, you'll live forever in our heart.

Cindy B. Snow
